MONDAY AFTERNOON, SEPT. 29.

EXCHANGE PAPERS.—We continue to receive by ever mail nowspapers containing our little card "To the Pub-lic," and asking an exchange. Our offer in that has been long since revoked.

LOOK TO THE NOTES YOU RECEIVE .- In the present state of affairs it would be well for our citizens not to receive the notes of the People's Bank, Paterson, N. J.; the Commercial Bank, Perth Amboy, N. J.; the Farmers & Mechanics' Bank, New Brunswick, N. J.; the Union Bank, Dover, N. J.; and the Salisbury Bank, Md.

The Baltimore Clipper of this morning says: "The Farmers' & Mechanics' Bank of New Jersey has not failed; and we have no positive nation of the report of the failure of the Bank of Salisbury. be about $20,000.

A note from J. Thompson, of the New York Bank Reporter, says:

"In order to save the public from loss and inconvenience, I would state that the following banks have not failed—their notes are bought and will continue to be bought, at 7 per cent.

"Government Stock Bank, Michigan; Bank of America, New Jersey; Ocean Bank, do. Atlantic Bank, do.; Merchants' Bank, do. Farmers' Bank, do.; Delaware and Hudson do. Nor do I believe that any New York banks either in the country or city, will fail.

"Owing to the scarcity of money, the New York brokers of uncurrent funds have raised the rates of discount-Jersey currency to 1 per cent., Western New York currency 1 per cent. and Eastern currency $\frac{3}{4}$, and old established banks of the eastern part of this State to 1 per cent. Even at these rates some few broker have ceased buying."

LYNCH LAW .- The following is said to copied from the Richmond Times:

"On the 13th inst., the Vigilance Committee of the county of Grayzon in this State arrested a man named John Cornutt, [a friend and fol-lower of Bacon, the Ohio abolitionist,] and after examining the evidence against him, required him to renounce his abolition sentiments. Cornutt refused to do; thereupon he was stripped tied to a tree, and whipped. After receiving a dozen stripes, he caved in, and promised not a dozen stripes, he caved in, and promised not only to recent, but to sell his property in the county, [consisting of land and negroes,] and leave the State. Great excitement prevailed throughout the county, and the Wytheville Republican, of the 20th instant, states that the Vigilance Committee of Grayson were in hot pursuit of other obnoxious persons."

Whether this man is an abolitionist, secessionist, Jew, Turk, or Hottentot, we do not care to inquire. In any case the "Committee of Vigilance" deserve punishment, and a stigma will rest upon the Commonwealth of Virginia until they receive their just deserts. How can that State cry out for the punishment even of the Christiana murderers, and yet tolerate within her own dominions such highhanded deeds as this?

Do GHOSTS APPEAR?-The Washington Tele graph, referring to the Rev. Septimus Tustin's Lecture on Ghosts and Apparitions, thinks the editor of the Philadelphia Sun will be present in the hope that some of the beauless young ladies will be afraid to go home by themselves.
"There was a time" when such an idea might have possessed us, but now the girls all pick out younger men than we are to go home with them. We are "falling into the sere and yellow -we are the setting sun, and our rising ton stands a far better chance to be chosen as cavalier servante than we do .- Phila. Sun.

This is very pretty, and quite an appropriate story to tell at home; but we have heard tell of you, and how the young ladies of Philadelphia "do wish married gentlemen would be less gallant!" Oh, you sly old sinner!

The Centre Market. A writer in the Republic informs us that sevthe Mayor of Washington for a new structure of a market-house, to cost from $75,000 to least, is very reasonable. $100,000, with a range of stores upon Pennsylvania avenue, capacious halls, and with several offices in the second story. He says it is presumed that a daily market would then be established, and that from such a building an annual revenue of $20,000 would be obtained. As to the "ways and means," he says, the Corporation will not be compelled to incur, directly, one cent of expense; as a liberal citizen is willing to advance the necessary amount, on the credit of the Corporation, and look to the revenue from the market, over the necessary current expenses, for repayment. A new market-house would soon pay for itself; and he cannot conceive why the proper authorities should for a moment delay this important work.

Permit us to remark here, that a piece of ground has been given to this city by the United States government for the purposes of a market place-not as a place on which to build "a range of stores," "capacious halls," or "offices in the second story." A market place is the only object; and if this is not observed in good plaint," alluded to, was the sixth. We never faith by the city, the ground must revert back saw De Ahna, nor he us, till the eighth. He to the General Government.

The people of Washington want immediately a thousand dollars. Let the whole space given for market place be properly graded and well assertion should be shown, and because it is paved; let a simple market-house be built, so all we know respecting the whole affair. cost as to require no delay, and can be done by the city, who alone should do it.

We do not want a daily market here: but on WILLOW BASKETS.

Arrest for Libel. A United States warrant was this morning issued by Justice J. L. Smith, for one Henri de

Ahna, upon the following affidavitt: CITY AND COUNTY OF WASHINGTON , D. C.: Be it remembered, that, on this 29th day of September, 1861, before me, John L. Smith, a Justice of the Peace for the city and county aforesaid, personally appeared Garpard Toch-man, esq., late Major in the Polish army, and now a member of the United States bar, residing in the city, county, and District aforesaid, who, after being duly sworn, and according to law, says: That a certain man naming himself Henri de Ahna, who lately arrived in this country from Europe, (and represents himself to be a native of Bavaria, and to have been a Captain in the Bavarian army,) is now in this city as a temporary sojourner, and has been for some days or weeks circulating a most wilful and malicious libel against this deponent's wife, born Appollonia Jagiello, who, before she was married to this deponent, came to this country to seek asylum as a political exile, under the its circulation is said to protection of Governor Ujhazi, late of Hungary, and his family. The deponent further says that the libel referred to consists of a printed paper headed "Answer of Henri de Ahna to the citizens of Washington, in regard to certain imputed slanders;" which paper, under the above heading, contains most malicious, false, and unwarrantable libellous imputations, published against said Appollonia Jagiello, now wife of this deponent, in the form of an affidavit purporting to have been made before H. C. Brownell, Justice of the Peace, of Williamsburg, in the county of Kings, State of New York, by a German naming himself Charles Koelbel, and styling himself to be a Major in the late Hungarian army. The deponent exhibited and filed with this affidavit two printed copies of said libel, to show that the false, wilful, and malicious imputations made, published, and circulated against his wife, amount to a wilful breach of peace against the United States; that they are designed, maliciously, to impair the good name, reputation, and character of this leponent's wife; and that the offence of circulating them is indictable under the laws of the land. The deponent then said, that the Grand Jury not being now in session, he applies to this magistrate for a warrant against said offender, Henri de Ahna, to secure his appearance at the next term of the Criminal Court, by committing him, said Henri de Ahna, in the county jail until he gives a bail sufficient to secure such appearance, and answer the great offence committed against the peace of the people of the United States by reason of circulating aforesaid false, malicious and wilful libel against the wife of this deponent. The deponent further says, that he has no evidence to prove that said libel has been written, as it purports to have been, by said Charles Koelbel, styling himself Major of the late Hungarian army; but to prove that it has been circulated by said man, naming himself Henri de Ahna, he brings as witnesses Mesars. T. C. Connolly and James A. Berry, citizens and residents of this District, to whom said offender, Henri de Ahna, handed personally the two copies of libel, which this leponent filed in this office with this affidavit. The depouent lastly says, that he has reason to believe, and does really believe, that, independ-ent of the personal jealousy and animosty con-nected with wilful malice, said offender, Henri de Ahna, has been sided and abetted in circulating said libel by a foreign diplomatic repre-makes this last statement, which he believes to be true and correct, to show this magistrate that circumstances aggravating the offence are in existence; that, therefore, the amount of bail should be ample and sufficient to secure the attainment of justice, as a small bail would defeat the end, and would encourage other de-above-named accused have attracted some attention in this city for a few weeks past, either on account of the faith reposed in his statements, or the wonder that he could be permitted to utter them. He is now, no doubt, in the hands of those who will do him full justice in the premises, and destroy either him or the

In the course of his pamphlet, De Ahna, in speaking of Major Tochman, says:

"I had, the very day of his complaint, left a printed affidavit for him with his friend, the editor of the Telegraph, which is now ten days since."

He uttered this on the fourteenth of September. The day of Major Tochman's "comcalled at our office to reply to Major Tochman's "complaint," and then presented his printed good market-house, and a good one can be affidavit in the presence of witness. LATER FROM EUROPE ARRIVAL OF THE BALTIC.

The steamer Baltic arrived at New York yes terday, with Liverpool dates of the 17th, and ninety-seven passengers. She passed the Asia on the 19th, west of Cape Clear. The Baltic experienced heavy westerly gales during the whole passage.

We have but a limited sketch of general news Much disappointment was felt in England, owning to the lack of definite news from the Cuba Expedition. It is stated as the result of negotiations between England, France, and Spain, that further expeditions against Cuba from America will be resisted by these powers.

Political and religious circles are engressed by the secession of the Duke of Norfolk from the Roman church. Great feeling was mani-fested on all sides. Hon. Abbott Lawrence is on a tour through England. The gold excitement in Australia was increasing. The receipts of the Exhibition are £3,000 per diem.

The India mail, with Calcutta dates to August 7, has arrived, but brings no news. Ster-

Advices from the continent show the great measiness for the future. The Department of Ardeche, in France, was in a state of siege. The Prince de Joinville is shortly expected to formally announce his name as a candidate for the Presidency. The Duc D'Aumale is on his vay to London.

At Naples, forty-six State prisoners have been condemned to death, including ten deputies, two ex-ministers, two priests, and one ambassador.

Markers.—Middling qualities of cotton are a shade dearer; sales since the Africa left 19,000 bales, of which exporters and speculators took 7,000.

Flour is dull and unchanged. Corn is in better demand at improving rates. Wheat is dull and has declined 1d.; sales of red at 5s. Provisions are dull and unchanged; coffee is very dull; tea is unaltered. Trade in Manchester is healthy at full rates. The money market is sensitive on account of the numerous failures, and the funds are depressed. Consols closed at 96; foreign stocks are dull.

"HIS GRACE THE ARCHBISHOP OF NEW YORK."-Bishop Hughes is thus entitled in the official announcements of the Freeman's Journal, a prominent Roman Catholic paper. If a secular paper had used the term, we should have suspected the editor to be ignorant or jocular; but the Journal is, of course, neither.

bave suspected the editor to be ignorant or jocular; but the Journal is, of course, neither. Archbishops Carroll and Eccleston, perhaps as distinguished and elevated as any other ministers of their church our country has ever known, and both of titled families in the Old World, forbore the assumption of titles in this, and yet fulfilled pretty well the duties of their calling. "His Grace" of New York, however, of far humbler origin, no doubt regards them as a couple of plain republican Americans, "well enough in their sphere," but ignorant of high courty notions. It is a small matter, to be sure, but "straws show," &c.

MURDER.—Messrs. Editors: Please insert the following truthful lines from the Philadelphia Sun.

"Murder.—Much is said about the Christians faunder, and wink at a thousand. All through our State, men are actually licensed; too commit murder. The best proof lies in the notorious fact that thousands of our citizens are actually killed annually through the sale and use of ard dent spirits! Stand but an hour at your door, and you may see some of the poor deluded victures that familiarity with a crime so monstrous should blind us to the necessity of its speedy destruction. Is there a political evil of one tenth the enormity as this? What are tariffs, or sub-treasuries, or banks, or all other questions combined, compared to this in importance? Intemperance produces derangement in business, failures, poverty, degradation, insagnity, crime, and even death! Here we should centre our whole political strength, and until it is destroyed, throw to the world all party alliance. Oss." CONSUL OWEN.-We have an idea that Mr. consul Owen does not hold a very high place in Major Haynes's esteem, or in the esteem of any survivor of the Lopez expedition. He is likely to receive the cold shoulder from his fellow-citizens generally, should he return to the United States. We condemn the object and purpose of the Lopez invasion, but are far from sympathizing with the indifference which seems to have been manifested by Mr. Owen, in regard to the fate of his deluded but gallant countrymen.
